III. STATEMENT OF CLAIM

State here, as briefly as possible, the facts of your case. Describe how each defendant is involved.

Include also the name(s) of other persons involved, dates, and places. Do not give any legal arguments or cite any cases or statutes. If you intend to allege a number of related claims, number and set forth each claim in a separate paragraph. Use as much space as you need. Attach extra sheets of paper if necessary.

From March 2015 through June 2015, I received numerous text messages from my wife stating that Gregory Studemire made unwanted and numerous jokes that were either sexual in nature, had to do with my wife's appearance or otherwise were inappropriate and made my wife feel uncomfortable in general. These are the feelings that she stated to me. Also, sometime during this time, my wife told me that Mr. Studemeyer was at the dentist having a root canal and called the office phone. My wife asked him if there was anything else that she could do for him and he replied "I can use you standing here in a candy stripper/nurse uniform". My said that she was completely taken off guard and just laughed because it made her uncomfortable. Because of my wife's high sexual appetite, I said to her "I bet you liked that and she stated "Uh, No.". Because of this highly charged sexual environment, I believe this culture contributing to my wife's affairs with two other men that either worked in the office, or next door. Those men included Yahya Shurafa who worked next door at Mr. PC. He had sexual intercourse with my wife two times at his home, but also engaged in oral sex in the bathroom of her office. He is prepared to give an affidavit to that effect. \ By oral sex, I mean she put Mr. Shurafa's penis inside of her mouth in the bathroom while her bosses were not there.

III. STATEMENT OF CLAIM - continued.

IV. RELIEF.

State briefly and exactly what you want this court to do for you.

I would like to find the business at fault for workplace discrimination and sexual harassment against Mr. Studemeyer. I am asking the court to award a judgement against Mr. Studemeyer for compensatory damages for my children's therapy until each child reaches 18 years of age. Roughly $45,000 for the compensatory damages as well as leaving open a punitive damages for the emotional and psychological damage this has done to the children as well as myself.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Signed this 9th day of February, 2016.
